

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS
The Association of Dress Historians
MA Graduates Roundtable | Friday 5th July 2024

Are you a recent Master's graduate with a passion for fashion studies and research to share? We invite you to submit your abstract for consideration at the upcoming roundtable, where you'll have the opportunity to present your dissertation findings.

Event Overview:

The MA Graduates Roundtable is a platform for recent MA graduates in any field related to fashion studies to showcase their research and engage in meaningful dialogue with fellow scholars and industry experts. This virtual roundtable, scheduled for the 5th of July 2024, will provide a dynamic and interactive space for intellectual exchange and collaboration.

Each session will feature a 15-minute presentation followed by a Q&A session, allowing for in-depth discussions and feedback from peers and experts.

Submission Guidelines:

Abstracts should be no more than 300 words and describing the outline of your dissertation. Submissions must be relevant to the field of fashion studies, encompassing a wide range of topics and including all degrees in different disciplines but with a dissertation topic that is fashion or textile related. Applicants must have completed a Master's degree in fashion studies or a related field within the past two years (June 2022) to be eligible for consideration.

MA research should be related, but are not limited to, any of the following fields:

- Fashion and dress studies
- Fashion and dress history
- Textiles and materials
- Media and/or cinema and/or visual studies
- Art and design
- Conservation
- Costume
- Body and identity
- Display

How to Submit:

Please submit your abstract (300 words max) along with a brief biography (100 words max) and contact information via email to irene.calvi@dresshistorians.org. The deadline for abstract submissions is Friday 14th of June (with notification of acceptance/rejection by Monday 24th).

For inquiries or more information, please contact Irene Calvi at irene.calvi@dresshistorians.org. We look forward to receiving your submissions and to an engaging and enriching roundtable experience!

Note that applicants must be a member of the ADH (current or pending) to be considered for this event.
