

Call For Submissions: The ADH Lecture & Conversation Series 2020

CFP Deadline for Conversation Submissions:

1 October 2020 GMT 11:59pm, please submit to Mariza Galindo and Emmy Sale, Marketing and Communications at communications@dresshistorians.org

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS: CONVERSATIONS

The ADH would like to invite our members to start a conversation with our audience via our virtual platform. The Conversations will follow a Q&A structure and will focus on an article published in The Journal of Dress History or a discussion between a member of our charity and you, our supporter. The intention is to shed light on a particular topic or role within the realms of dress history and fashion studies at large. See the below criteria and reach out to us if you would like to take part!

Further Information:

-You must hold a current Association of Dress Historians membership. If you are not currently a member, our memberships are only £10 per year and available to purchase here: <https://dresshistorians.org/membership/>

-Conversations will be delivered in a 45-minute slot and include: introduction by our Marketing or Social Media Officer and the Q&A.

- We will encourage our members to submit questions in advance of the conversation in an effort to allow the speaker to prepare.
- Please note we will not record the Conversations. The Q&A's are intentionally designed as a onetime opportunity to interact with our audience live.

Submission Guidelines:

- Abstract (100-200 word max.) outlining your area of interest or expertise.
- Biography (100-200 word max.).
- 1-3 high quality images that reflect the essence of the conversation; one of these images should be of you. The images will be used for marketing purposes, so please include detailed captions where applicable.
- Please see the below timeline and provide availability for dates and time.
